Video of 2017 Australian Learning Lecture - edited version of Charles Fadel's presentation 'The New Success'

An edited version of Charles Fadel's presentation 'The New Success' for the 2017 Australian Learning Lecture. Presented in Melbourne Australia, on 11 May 2017.

Watch and discuss:

- What can you change so that your child or students can gain the skills and knowledge they need for success?
- What are some of the barriers to transforming learning in Australia, so that all students can access the competencies and knowledge they need to succeed?
- How do we move Charles Fadel's model of four-dimensional learning to the centre of practice?
- What are three possible next steps?
