

ALL influencer achieves accolades ^[1]

Jennie Vine, one of ALL's Passion Index advisory panellists, has been nominated to The Educator Hotlist 2018. She is one of 53 education professionals who have been nominated by other educators for their significant contribution to the K- 12 education space over the year.

Jennie, assistant principal at Wooranna Park Primary, has been spearheading transformative practice for seven years in a bid to ignite passion and purpose with primary aged students. In so doing, she spreads the message that positive impact in the world is based on good character, a thirst for learning, grit and tenacity.

She has been leading the school's Enigma Missions program which allows students to connect with professionals, creating action projects and presenting their research in learning symposiums. The program allows students to explore subject matter outside of the primary curriculum.
