

Ellen Koshland nominated as Person of Impact ^[1]

ALL's founder Ellen Koshland is one of 337 Australians who have been nominated for Pro Bono Australia's 2019 Impact 25 awards.

Pro Bono Australia CEO and founder Karen Mahlab AM said it was Pro Bono Australia's privilege to be able to bring to public awareness the valuable work of these 300-plus people nominated by their communities.

The awards, run in partnership with Community Sector Banking, are an established accolade recognising the most influential people in Australia's social sector as nominated and voted for by their peers.
